The setup – the anti-Christ system (review)

Conclusion: The anti-Christ system is the perfect solution to our desire to get ahead in this world.

Fast forward to recent American history

Like a magician, Satan preys on our selfishness and created a delusion, called 'The American Dream' to keep us chasing an illusion (we can have it all), while his real agenda was hidden in plain sight.

Wanting our own way has us believing in all kinds of lies because we've put our trust in men, as a result of wanting our own way. The American Dream preys on our selfish nature. Why do I know? This is what I chased most of my life.

Like what?

Major American PSYOPs (when you think of these things, remember at least 70% of the country thinks you are wearing a tinfoil hat for believing the truth) - Kennedy assassination, 9/11 false flag, COVID - all child's play compared to...

The American Dream (home of the free and land of the brave); The American Dream doesn't need God - He is an afterthought; it was all a trap to deceive, preying on our selfishness, as you'll soon find out.

God gave us a warning, as He always does: Jeremiah 17:4 - 5 (in part): Through your own fault you will lose the inheritance I gave you. I will enslave you to your enemies in a land you do not know; Cursed is the one who trusts in man, who draws strength from mere flesh and whose heart turns away from the Lord.

Is God against our plans? No, Proverbs 16:9 A man's heart plans his way, but the Lord determines his steps. Same as He is not against knowledge Hosea 4:6. He's against our plans and quest for knowledge replacing Him.

What is the American Dream?

2.1 children 1.7 dogs (no cats), work hard, save money, retire early and relax, live a clean life, obeying laws and paying taxes, free health care at 65 - Where's God? Same choice as in the garden. We can have it all, at the expense of God (who needs Him if you have everything), or have God and give up our 'right' to our own way.

How did this happen? By design...

By chasing the American dream, we've been deceived

The Definitive Treaty of Peace 1783

In the Name of the most Holy & undivided Trinity.

It having pleased the Divine Providence to dispose the Hearts of the most Serene and most Potent Prince George the Third, by the Grace of God, King of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, Duke of Brunswick and Lunebourg, Arch-Treasurer and Prince Elector of the Holy Roman Empire etc., and of the United States of America, to forget all past Misunderstandings and Differences that have unhappily interrupted the good Correspondence and Friendship which they mutually wish to restore; and to establish such a beneficial and satisfactory Interchange between the two countries upon the ground of reciprocal Advantages and mutual Convenience as may promote and secure to both perpetual Peace and Harmony; and having for this desirable End already laid the Foundation of Peace & Reconciliation by the Provisional Articles

It is written in "The Elements of Ecclesiastical Law", no law exists in US without the pope's approval

The United States gave up all rights, title, and interest. If you claim to be a U.S. Citizen by your own admission, you also have no rights, no title, and no interest.

"The United States of America by contract, gave up all right, title or interest in said property, without any conditions set forth;" [Ensminger Case 1995: "This action was instigated to determine who has the highest title to property located in [Major and Grady] county, Oklahoma Territory state, of which the United States of America by contract, gave up all right, title or interest in said property, without any conditions set forth."

We can't be involuntary slaves!

13th Amendment

Section 1. Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction.

Section 2. Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

The 14th Amendment made us all U.S. Citizens, so next they bankrupted the country, making us and our property collateral for the debt.

James Traficant speech to Congress March 17, 1993:

Then they got us to comply with the scam voluntarily - birth certificate; use their fake currency; pay taxes; use their legal system. We became slaves.

What did we get in trade?

Rights [edit]

- Freedom to reside and work. United States citizens have the right to reside and work in the United States. Certain non-citizens, such as lawful permanent residents, have similar rights; however, non-citizens, unlike citizens, may have the right taken away. For example, they may be deported if convicted of a serious crime.<sup>[11]</sup>
- Freedom to enter and leave the United States. United States citizens have the right to enter and leave the United States freely. Certain non-citizens, such as permanent residents, have similar rights. Unlike permanent residents, United States citizens do not have an obligation to maintain residence in the United States – they can leave for any length of time and return freely at any time.<sup>[citation needed]</sup>
- Voting for federal office in all fifty states and the District of Columbia is restricted to citizens only. States are not required to extend the franchise to all citizens: for example, several states bar citizen felons from voting, even after they have completed any custodial sentence. The United States Constitution bars states from restricting citizens from voting on grounds of race, color, previous condition of servitude, sex, failure to pay any tax, or age (for citizens who are at least eighteen years old). Historically, many states and local jurisdictions have allowed non-citizens to vote; however, today this is limited to local elections in very few places. Citizens are not compelled to vote.
- Freedom to stand for public office. The United States Constitution requires that all members of the United States House of Representatives have been citizens for seven years, and that all senators have been citizens for nine years, before taking office. Most states have similar requirements: for example California requires that legislators have been citizens for three years, and the Governor has been a citizen for five years, upon taking office. The United States Constitution requires that one be "a natural born Citizen" and a United States resident for fourteen years in order to be president of the United States or vice president of the United States. The Constitution also stipulates that otherwise eligible citizens must meet certain age requirements for these offices.
- Right to apply for federal employment. Many federal government jobs require applicants to have United States citizenship. United States citizens

The United States military has been an all-volunteer force since the end of the Vietnam War, but male United States citizens and non-citizens are still required to register for the military draft within 30 days of their 18th birthday.

Benefits [edit]

- Consular protection outside the United States. While traveling abroad, if a person is arrested or detained by foreign authorities, the person can request to speak to somebody from the United States Embassy or Consulate. Consular officials can provide resources for Americans incarcerated abroad, such as a list of local attorneys who speak English. The United States government may even intervene on the person's behalf.<sup>[15]</sup> Non-citizen United States nationals also have this benefit.
- Increased ability to sponsor relatives living abroad.<sup>[15]</sup> Several types of immigrant visas require that the person requesting the visa be directly related to a United States citizen. Having United States citizenship facilitates the granting of IR and F visas to family members.
- Ability to invest in United States real property without triggering FIRPTA. Perhaps the only quantifiable economic benefit of United States citizenship, citizens are not subject to additional withholding tax on income and capital gains derived from United States real estate under the Foreign Investment in Real Property Tax Act \(FIRPTA\).<sup>[citation needed]</sup>
- Transmission of United States citizenship to children born abroad. Generally, children born to two United States citizen parents abroad are automatically United States citizens at birth. When the parents are one United States citizen and one non-United States citizen, certain conditions about the United States citizen's parent's length of time spent in the United States need to be met.<sup>[16]</sup> Non-citizen United States nationals also have a similar benefit (transmission of non-citizen United States nationality to children born abroad).

Duties [edit]

- Jury duty is only imposed upon citizens. Jury duty may be considered the "sole differential" between non-citizens and citizens; the federal and state courts "uniformly exclude non-citizens from jury duty and with the exception of a few states in the past, this has always been the case"<sup>[13]</sup>
- Military participation is not currently required in the United States, but a policy of conscription has been in place at various times (both in war and in peace) in American history, most recently during the Vietnam War. Currently, the United States Armed Forces are a professional all-volunteer force, although United States citizens and male non-citizen permanent residents are required to register with the Selective Service System and may be called up in the event of a future draft. Johns Hopkins University Benjamin Ginsberg writes, "The professional military has limited the need for citizen soldiers".
- Taxes. In the United States today, everyone except those whose income is derived from tax-exempt sources (Subchapter N, Section 861 of the U.S. Tax Code) is required to file a federal income tax return and pay federal income tax on worldwide income regardless of their country of residence.
- Census. A response to the decennial United States census is mandated by Article I, Section 2 of the United States Constitution and by Title 13 of the United States Code of all residents. A response to the Community Survey is also mandated by Title 13, U.S. Code, Sections 141, 193, and 221, as well as 54 U.S.C. § 10101.

Citizens are required to file United States taxes even if they do not live in the United States.

Conclusion: We've been lied to. The U.S. is a bankrupt corporation. When we claim to be citizens of the U.S., we give up all rights to self and property. Our pursuit of The American Dream resulted in slavery.

Satan's tacit approval method

Satan exposes the evil, not only for our approval, but to keep us from looking at the real agenda – the seemingly lesser lie, but the more deceptive lie – as discussed in Parts 4 and 5 on dialectics – he was the first to employ propaganda and was the first magician

What weapons does Satan use to deceive?

Coach Dave – lies, deception, and fear, oh my

It is easier to fool someone than convince them that they have been fooled – Mark Twain

While we fool ourselves trying to be like God; He gave us the answer before we would listen:

Philippians 2:5-7: Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though He was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men – Jesus showed our defense is by submitting to the Father

Conclusion: The entire beast system is designed to capture souls, with temptations that result in bondage. Satan created an elaborate system, filled with temptations and bondage, so we conclude: “God cannot be trusted.” Exodus 6:6 – 9: “Therefore, say to the Israelites: ‘I am the Lord, and I will bring you out from under the yoke of the Egyptians. I will free you from being slaves to them, and I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with mighty acts of judgment. I will take you as my own people, and I will be your God. Then you will know that I am the Lord your God, who brought you out from under the yoke of the Egyptians. And I will bring you to the land I swore with uplifted hand to give to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob. I will give it to you as a possession. I am the Lord.’” Moses reported this to the Israelites, but they did not listen to him because of their discouragement and harsh labor.
