DE PERE --- Please mark your calendars for our next meeting, Tuesday, April 11. Our featured speakers will be:

Tara Czachor (left) of Wisconsin United for Freedom, sponsor of VaxCon23. Wisconsin United For Freedom is committed to protecting fundamental rights and defending health freedom. It has funded billboards and radio ads around Wisconsin to protect health freedom, and its team tracks legislation, attends events, does speaking engagements, and whatever else it can do to spread the word.

Tara will be joined at our meeting by Scott and Cindy Schara (right), whose 19-year-old daughter Grace was killed by an Appleton hospital's COVID protocols. You can learn more about their story here. The Scharas announced at a press conference on March 30 that they have taken the first step toward filing a civil malpractice lawsuit against the hospital, a website for updates on the litigation has been launched here.
